

Omexal® Printano

Omexal® Printano stands for anodised aluminium sheets that have been developed for printing applications, especially for sub-anodised printing. Due to the special manufacturing process, Omexal® Printano ensures maximum dye adsorption by the anodic oxide layer and thus forms the basis for the best possible light fastness of the print. Due to the special packaging, this property is also guaranteed over a longer period of time.

For further information please contact us:

OmyaWeb Contact us